

TRAILS
SUPERSTITION WILDERNESS

There is a network of some 170 miles of “system” trails serving the Superstition Wilderness Area and contiguous areas. Their condition varies from satisfactory to very poor. All trails are closed to motor vehicles and mechanical transport such as bikes.

Use a great deal of caution when traveling on backcountry trails such as this one and be aware of the risks you assume.

A few brief comments are in order about the following trail:

Reavis Valley Trail 109: 15.3 miles long. The northern 2/3 of this trail is the old roadway to a former homestead. Southern section crosses the Iron Burn of 1966 (partially re-burned in 1984). Elevation: 3,620 - 5,360 feet. Termini: Reavis TH (Forest Road 212), and Rogers Trough TH (Forest Road 172A).

No more than 15 people are allowed to be in a group. No more than 15 head of livestock are allowed in a group.
