Local Event Brings Out Many Volunteers

Klamath Falls, OR – More than 30 volunteers turned out at the Wood River Wetland Saturday, September 20, to help during National Public Lands Day. The event was hosted by the Klamath Falls Resource Area of the Lakeview District Bureau of Land Management (BLM).

Volunteers worked from 9:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the Wetlands, planting trees, building bird houses, installing a floating boardwalk, and doing trail maintenance.

Among the volunteers were members of Boy Scout Troup 8, Winema Council Girl Scout Troup's 414 and 417, local BLM employees and their families.

Special thanks to the Four Runners Four-Wheel Drive Club of Klamath Falls for preparing a free lunch to all those who attended.

Nationwide, thousands of people donated time to projects improving public lands on September 20. For more information, visit the National Public Lands Day website at <http://www.npld.com/>.
